

Call For Story Contributors:

We envision a book similar to Currency of Hope of Debtors Anonymous called Moving Beyond Money: How to Overcome Underearning, but for those participating in a variety of financial recoveries.

Authors who have completed a program of financial recovery may submit under their own names but publish under pseudonyms such as Cathy from Chicago to remain anonymous.

To request a copy of the full book proposal or if you have any questions, email the editors at financialrecoverybook@gmail.com.

Entries should be clearly written, and brief, 3-4 pages (1000-2500 words). We suggest drawing from the following topics:

- Getting into Program
- Getting Connected to Others: Sponsors, Sponsees, and Groups
- Doing Step Work
- Using the Recovery Tools
- Changes in Our Relationships with Money, Ourselves, and Others
- Life after Recovery/ What Life Looks Like Today

As we receive the individual essays, we will organize contributions accepted by our Writers Panel of Writers in Recovery into sections, which might include Using the Steps, Program Relationships and Recovery in Far Flung Places. We are especially interested in collecting recovery experiences from the US Midwest, the Southern US, and around the globe.

A portion of all proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to financial recovery programs. Authors do have the option of receiving an honorarium after publication pending 10,000 book sales.

Authors may submit their essays using the button below.